FRIDAY, March 6, 1829.

The house met. Were present the same members as on yesterday.

On motion by Mr. McMahon of Baltimore city, the reading of the proceedings of yesterday was dispensed with.

Mr. Steuart of Baltimore city, presented a petition of Nathaniel Burk, of the city of Baltimore, who was a soldier of the revolution, and attached to the 5th regiment of the Maryland line, praying for relief; which petition was referred to the committee on pensions and revolutionary claims.

And also presented two several memorials of sundry merchants, millers, and dealers in flour, of the city of Baltimore, counter to the appointment of an additional inspector of flour for the said city, and opposing the passage of the bill introduced into this house, to authorise such an appointment.

On motion by Mr. Steuart of Baltimore city, the said memorials were read, and ordered to lie on the table.

Mr. Shafer presented a petition from a number of the citizens of Washington county, of both political parties, praying for the passage of the bill for electing commissioners by the people, and abolishing the levy court and commissioners of the tax in said county, with the proposed amendment from the senate; and distinctly disavowing any knowledge on their part that a former petition on the same subject originated from party principles; which petition was read and referred to the select committee that reported the said bill.

On motion by Mr. Beckett, it was Ordered, That the committee on claims be directed to close the journal of accounts up to the 9th inst. inclusive.

On motion by Mr. Teackle, the following order submitted by him, was twice read and adopted, viz.
